FOQUS SIX SIGMA PROGRAM

Why Foqus Six Sigma

A premier provider of Six Sigma and Lean programs in the country today, FOQUS is breaking new grounds in introducing a unique, practical and sound learning solution called Blended Learning. FOQUS combines the best approach and solution to achieve optimal results for your Six Sigma program. In partnership with ExpertRating, a US-based Online Certification Company, FOQUS offers an internationally-recognized Six Sigma program but with a local touch. FOQUS also offers this program in partnership with GoalQPC, publisher of Memory Joggers.

- Online Program from ExpertRating. Hundred of pages, well-developed downloadable training program to be completed within 4 weeks. FOQUS augments the online program with printed materials and Six Sigma textbook.
- 24/7 Online Discussion Forum. Each chapter of the online program is accompanied by an online discussion forum where interaction among participants and program instructors would continue to ensure the enhancement of learning.
- 5 days of highly interactive and hands-on instructor-led workshops. These Workshops include case studies, simulation exercises, and statistical analysis using MS Excel and Minitab.

What is Blended Learning?

Blended Learning is a modern approach in learning where classroom methods, online delivery, and project-based learning processes are integrated. In simple terms, the advantages of these various approaches are maximized so that the limitations are minimized. So, instead of spending 10 full days off from your work, you only attend classroom discussion for 5 days and take the remaining Green Belt program online.
